

Your Responsibility At Work

Ephesians 6:5-9 pt2

Introduction

1. This section of Ephesians is directed to the _____ and the _____ who were members of the church of Ephesus
2. Though this section is not directed specifically to all Christians, we can _____ the principles found here to our relationship with our manager on the job.
3. The slave was commanded to obey their masters, not _____ their situation. Likewise, we do not need a change of circumstance to obey our managers on the job.
4. The slaves were those who were _____ and were the _____ of the masters and are relatable by way of application to modern day _____.

5. The masters were those who _____ the slaves and are relatable by way of application to the modern-day manager or boss.

6. The masters could have included the _____ and _____ and by way of application, we can serve either a _____ or _____ boss.

7. How were these slaves to serve and how does it apply to us (the Christian employee)?
 - a. They were to serve their masters with _____ and _____, which is how we should serve our employers. (Eph. 6:5)

 - b. They were to serve their masters in _____ of heart just as we should serve our employer. (Eph. 6:5)