

A Time To Act!

Esther: Chapter Nine & Ten

A. The Day of Reckoning Arrives

➤ At last, the day has arrived for the Jews to _____ themselves and their property by _____ those who would destroy them. This occurred on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, which was March 6, 473 B.C. (Esther 3:7, 8:12; 9:1)

- Is God a murderer?

➤ Instead of being annihilated, the Jews _____ their enemies. (Esther 9:1)

- What does this tell us about the people of the land?

➤ On that day, all the Jews _____ throughout the land to protect themselves, their women, their children, and their possessions from those who attack them. (Esther 9:2)

- What does this remind the church?

➤ What do we need to remember?

God loves mankind and hates _____!

But God has allowed man to _____ other men under certain circumstances, but God loves _____!

God desires that all men be _____ and come to the knowledge of the truth. (1 Tim. 2:4)

God wants His life _____.

We need to _____ together.
