

I. INTRODUCTION

A. Who/Where?

1. The author of this book is identified as _____. (James 1:1)
2. His real name was _____ (Gr).
3. The writer of James is most likely the _____ of _____ and the brother of _____.
4. He was an _____ possibly until after the resurrection (Jn. 7:2-5; 1 Cor. 15:7)
5. He was one of the _____ of the Jerusalem church (Acts 15:12-21; 12:17-21; Gal. 1:19; 2:6-10)
6. He was possibly _____ (1 Cor. 9:5)
7. He was reportedly martyred in _____ by the High Priest Ananus (Hegesippus & Eusebius/Josephus)
8. He is further described as a _____ of God and the Lord Jesus Christ. (James 1:1)
9. He was not one of the _____ but was an _____ in the general sense.
10. This letter was written to _____ who were _____ outside the land. (Jam. 1:1)
 - What caused them to scatter?
 - Where did they scatter to?

B. When?

1. This letter was written in _____ and was the first book of the NT written.

C. What?

1. The message of this book is how to _____.

2. It covers such features as:

3. Some distinctive features concerning this letter are:

- The connections to the _____.
- The connections to the book of _____.
- The use of _____ characters as illustrations.
- The illustrations from _____ and _____ in life.
- Only writer to use “_____”
- The extensive use of _____.

4. The key verses are _____.

5. Key Words